

Name: Stefanus Albertus Strydom

Born : 30 September 1952

ABBREVIATED CURRICULUM VITAE:

Current Activities

Geomatics and Spatial Data Consulting Services
Strategic planning and business plan development for Professional persons and small businesses

Qualifications

B.Sc. (Survey) – University of Pretoria (1976)
Environmental Impact Assessment Course of Potchefstroom University (1999)
GISc Course – EGIS 01J – Unisa (2008)

Professional Memberships

Member of the SA Geomatics Council – GPr LS0593
Member of the South African Geomatics Institute (SAGI)
Chairman of Northern Provinces Branch – STRY108

Member of GIS Society of SA
Reciprocal Member of the Institute of Mine Surveyors of South Africa

Other Organizations

External Examiner - University of Pretoria / Tshwane University of Technology (Retired)
Moderator Tswane University of Technology (Retired)

Articles and Seminars

Articles, seminars and workshops presented by Mr Strydom covers a wide range of subjects such as Cadastral surveying, Mineral Rights, Marketing professions, Survey specification, Remotely piloted vehicles, 3D mobile mapping and various other.

Experience:

Management and survey of large Survey, Mapping and GIS data capturing projects such as mass survey of Soweto (83 000) stands, Gurue-Lichinga Powerline (\pm 900km), Transnet Durban-Johannesburg Pipeline (\pm 700km), Soweto Land Regularization Project (GIS data capturing and rectification of cadastral data \pm 120 000 erven).

Mr. Strydom has been in private practice since 1978 and to date projects have been executed in more than 20 African countries, Madagascar and South America.